

PRITIKA KHATRI

- M: +17036560192 • E: Pritika.khatri@berkeley.edu
- Dolakha, Nepal • LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/KhatriP

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Senior public health leader with 16 years of cross-country experience leading strategy, operations, partnerships, and complex health initiatives across government, nonprofit, healthcare, and private-sector settings in Nepal, Nigeria, India, and the United States.

SKILLS

- Strategic Program Leadership and Multi-country Health Management
- Health Systems Strengthening in Low-resource and Underserved Settings
- Equity-driven Community Engagement & Government Partnership Building: Certification in Health Equity and System Research from WHO
- Supervised large-scale national surveys
- Language: English (Proficient), Hindi (Proficient), Nepali (Native), and Urdu (Proficient)

EDUCATION

Level	Board/University/Institution
Doctor of Public Health	University of California, Berkeley
Masters in Public Health	Institute of Medicine, Nepal
Bachelors in Public Health	Institute of Medicine, Nepal
Diploma in Nursing	Institute of Medicine, Nepal

ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP

- Scholarship for Intermediate, Bachelor, and Masters Level for 8 years for securing top ranks in National Level Entrance Examination at Institute of Medicine (IOM), nation's prestigious institute for health science
- Rank fifth, sixth, and fifth over 15,000 examinees in the national level examination of Institute of Medicine, Nepal

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

Director of Development and Executive Board Member

2024 September-Present

Health Foundation Nepal | Focus: Karnali, Dang, and underserved regions in Nepal

- Lead HFN's 2026 Nepal flood response, mobilising Psychological First Aid and community mental-health services in all severely affected districts, in partnership with Government of Nepal and local government, America Nepal Medical Foundation and Nepal Institute of Mental Health
- Spearheaded collaboration with the Ministry of Health to establish the nation's first National Center for Mental Health at Bharatpur Hospital integrated hub combining clinical care, training, research, rights-based services, and public awareness enabling its roadmap toward a 100-bed tertiary facility
- Strategic oversight to maternal health programs reaching 4,077 women and facilitating 5,039 follow-ups, strengthening care access for postpartum and pregnant women facing geographic and structural barriers.
- Expanded community mental-health services for underserved populations benefitting 823 older adults, extending school-based psychosocial programs to 20+ low-resource schools, and improving care pathways for 100+ individuals with psychiatric needs.

Executive Director

Dec 2016- Present

Health Care Clinic, Ogane-uge, Nigeria

Funding: Harvard Lown Scholars Program

- Orchestrated budgeting, and leading health programs including budgeting, accounting, and budget projections for 12 communities. Ensured compliance, aligning with agencies, achieving 30% cost savings.
- Analyzed disease inequities, managed 60,000+ patients for vital services, boosting care efficiency by 25% for malaria, HIV, Family planning, maternal and child health and safe motherhood program.
- Forged communication structure with officials and stakeholders, amplifying successful representation and negotiations, contributing to 20% faster project approval

Clinical Trial Director

May 2023-August 2024

Sarfez Pharmaceutical Inc, Vienna, Virginia

(Pharmaceutical Company for heart failure, kidney diseases, and uncontrolled hypertension)

- Directed operational planning and implementation for a multi-site Phase 3 cardiovascular clinical trial, ensuring regulatory compliance and efficient resource stewardship that reduced projected costs by 20%, managing a database of 340 clinical sites for trial coordination.
- Managed a cross-country team in Pakistan, India and Philippines to strengthen patient-education outreach for an FDA-approved heart-failure drug, deepening my understanding of health-system diversity across contexts.

Research Fellow for South-East Asia

Oct 2019- Dec 2021

*World Health Organization, Bangalore, IndiaImplementing agency: Public Health Foundation of India and United Nations University Malaysia*One of the nine fellows to be selected from South-East Asia

- Research project on how social determinants of health, structural and systemic racism contribute to gaps in adolescent friendly health services and applied intersectional research findings to consult with State, Federal, and local agencies, driving a 15% enhancement in the planning, execution, and evaluation of adolescent sexual and reproductive health initiatives
- Developed and evaluated WHO courses on Gender and Intersectionality in Health Policy, empowering over 500 researchers. These resources facilitated a 20% increase in gender-sensitive approaches, optimizing health policy implementation

Liaison and Quality Assurance Officer

Jan 2019–Jul 2019

*Save the Children International, Global FundProgram: National Tuberculosis Prevalence Survey, Government of Nepal*Extensive Community System Strengthening experience as demonstrated by

- Focal point of contact for liaison with WHO, Ministry of Health, private sector, local community organizations, donors, and stakeholders at local, federal, and state levels.
- Effectively supervised a 50-member team in demanding hilly clusters, overseeing comprehensive field operations from pre-visiting to successful survey conduction.
- Managed all survey stages, delivering an impressive 85%+ participation rate, minimizing data inconsistencies, and upholding survey quality across hilly clusters.

Program Officer

Jul 2015- April 2016

Centre for public health development (for Emergency and Post-Disaster Management Program)UNICEF funded program for shelter homes for pregnant and lactating women

- Led and implemented a comprehensive safe motherhood program for a cohort of 300 women in the aftermath of earthquake in earthquake affected districts.
- Managed operations across 8 temporary shelters, ensuring seamless integration with disaster response coordination efforts.
- Applied Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene protocols along with behavior change strategies within shelter homes and trained 40 local volunteers spanning 20 Village Development Committees

Program Coordinator

April 2010- May 2015

Partnership for Transformation, Nepal

- Spearheaded planning, evaluation, monitoring and reporting for Adolescent Reproductive Health Education Program
- Accelerated improvement in adolescent health seeking behavior in health facility- adolescents attendance improved by 20% compared to prior months in local health facility

RESEARCH EXPERIENCES AND PUBLICATIONS

- Pritika Khatri, Srinidhi V. "Adolescent Friendly Health Services in Nepal and Intersectionality: A Scoping Review" [Submitted to BMC Public Health]
- Pritika Khatri. Covid-19 Induced Gender Gaps: Past Lesson, Current State and Future Plans (Op-Ed)
- Pritika Khatri, Ajoy Kumar Thakur, Bandana Pradhan, Mita Rana. "Prevalence of Depressive Symptoms and its associated factors among medical students of Kathmandu Valley" [Submitted to PLOS Global Public Health]
- Pravin Khanal, Pritika Khatri. "Mental stress and the effect of mindful breathing package on perception and practice intention among school adolescents of Budhanilkantha municipality" [Submitted to American Journal of Public Health]
- Sushila Lamichhane, Pritika Khatri, Sajia Afrin, Sudarshan Neupane. "A Study on the dietary intake pattern of nurses working in COVID and non-COVID hospitals in Nepal" [Submitted to Nepal Health Research Council]
- Ashesh Malla Thakuri, Pritika Khatri, Bandana Pradhan. "Housing Conditions, Self-Reported health status and Nutritional Status of 6-59 months Children in Bharatpur Metropolitan City, Nepal" [Submitted to PLOS Global Public Health]

AWARDS AND LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES

- Graduate Student Editor at MIT Press for (Rapid Reviews/Infectious Diseases in LMIC setting)
- Winner in two National Level Beauty Pageant Competition; Miss Aryan Nepal and Miss Angel Nepal in 2013
- Solo poem recitation in national theater alongside leading literary figures Nepal (2022, July 2). Featured in national paper such as: In Annapurna Post National news portal In Nepal National News Portal

REFERENCESShreedhar Paudel, MD, MPH

Assistant Professor, Harvard Medical School
 Psychiatrist, Massachusetts General Hospital
 Founder and President| Health Foundation Nepal

Ndola Prata, MD, MSc

Professor in Residence, Maternal, Child, and Adolescent Health
 Faculty Director, Bixby Center for Population, Health and Sustainability
 University of California, Berkeley School of Public Health